

A DAINTY HOUSE GOWN FOR A YOUNG GIRL. Pink crepe with gauze drapery. The collar and sash are of Venetian gold brocade. A gold fillet studden with turquoise is worn on the hair.

NIGHTLY ENTERTAINMENTS.

VISITORS, BUT THE GIRLS ENJOY THE

LECTURE ON "PSYCHOLOGY OF

The Alumnæ Association of the Normal College opened its season yesterday afternoon with a reeption in the college library. The president, Dr.

Miss Blanch H. Arnold, acted as hostesses, and Miss C. F. White and Miss A. Mott, of '92, poured tea. Next month a couple of '93 graduates will be chosen for this office, the custom being for the different years to take their turns, in regular or-the counter-attraction of a lecture in the college at the same hour and to the extra amount of work enlargement of the manual work in the schools

The lecture was on "The Psychology of Arithmetic," and under other circumstances might not have stood much chance against the attractions of social intercourse; but no subject is too form!

dable for Normal graduates, and nothing, appar-

SPICED GRAPES AND GRAPE JELLY.

fermented wine, and is clearly adapted to this use.

The wild fox grape, when picked green, makes a delicious felly and jam. It should be gathered after the fruit has begun to be tinted with purple hues.

be advantageously prepared as a spiced fruit to eat with meats. It is waste of material to use the milder, finer, sweet grapes for such purposes, when the cheaper grapes serve the purpose so much

Grapes are too rich in juices and too seedy to be canned or prepared as sweet preserves, except in A NEW INDUSTRY.

A Cleveland (Ohio) girl has started a new indus-try. She has rented a window in a small shop and

OFF FOR NASHVILLE.

The women delegates of the Brooklyn Board of Commissioners to the Tennessee Centennial Expo-altion leave to-night for Nashville. A number of them are prominent members of Chiropean.

Among them are airs, margaret sangater, Mrs.
Alvah G. Brown, president of Chiropean, Mrs.
Frederick W. Wurster, vice-president; Mrs. Bernard Peters, Mrs. Andrew D. Baird, Mrs. Henry N. Meeker, chairman; Mrs. Herbert F. Gunnison, Mrs. Ludwig Nissen, Mrs. William Vogel, Mrs.
Charles Hazen Russell, Mrs. William C. Bryant and Mrs. George P. Jacobs.

Among them are Mrs. Margaret Sangster.

The Concord grape, which is nearly allied to the wild fox grape and possesses all its peculiar musky pulp, makes an excellent jam and jelly, and may but before it is completely turned.

the form of lam.

ntly, can turn them from the pursuit of knowl-der, at the ten-table.

WEST END CLUB SOCIAL NORMAL COLLEGE RECEPTION TEA, MUSIC, POLITICS AND GOSSIP MIN- THE ALUMNÆ BEGIN THEIR FORT-

GLE AMICABLY. LESSONS IN LEGISLATIVE SCIENCE GIVEN TO AN TEA AND CONVERSATION ARE OFFERED TO THE

INTERESTED AUDIENCE BY THE HON. GEORGE C. AUSTIN. The social afternoon at the West End Club never fails to attract a large audience, and yesterday was no exception. The musical programme began with the Beasey children, with violins and piano, and was followed by some charming ballads by Miss Marisona. The several encores, and the unique recitations by Mabel Stevenson Adams were keenly enjoyed. George C. Austin, chairman of the Cities Com-mittee of the last Assembly, was the speaker. He negro melodies by Miss Susanne Leonard called was accompanied by Mrs. Austin. He confessed that he was proud to be invited before the club, as it was an honor coveted by all the Republican workers, and at the headquarters had noted a decidedly green tinge on the faces of the men who knew of his good luck.

To give the women an idea of the practical side of legislative machinery he gave the history of a bill-how introduced and carried through the various stages before being placed on the statute books

The Senate was described as rather pompous and dignified, deficient in the hustling quality which characterizes the Assembly.

How bills are reported from first to third reading and what is meant by substituting bills were clearly explained.

The Citles Committee was the hardest worked of any last year, as eight hundred of the two thousisters have as much interest in candidates as the ien of the family, he was desirous of standing well in their estimation by telling what he had helped to accomplish during the last session at Albany.

"There were three things I determined to work for," said he: "a school appropriation sufficient to give every boy and girl a seat in school; to extend give every boy and girl a seat in school; to extend Riverside Drive to Inwood, and to make the Public Library a reality."

Mr. Auslin thinks people do not generally understand that it takes time to scoulire sites for school-houses, but in three years, with the large fund on hand, the school accommodations will be ample. The speaker did not allude to the compilications in municipal politics, except to criticise the action of the Citizens Union in mominating Assemblymen, whereby they stultified themse-ves.

Mr. Austin is seeking re-election as Assemblyman from the XXIst District, and the women say they will work hard for his election.

After the meeting an informal reception was given to Mr. and Mrs. Austin. Among the guests were Mrs. Herbert Shipman, Miss Van Zile, Mrs. Orlando Nelson Dana, Mrs. W. H. Somers, Miss E. P. Steele and Miss Adeline F. Smith, of Fiain City, Ohio.

CHILDREN'S HAPPY REFUGE.

MRS. ADAMS. THE WATCHFUL MOTHER MATRON OF THE LITTLE ONES LEFT UNCARED FOR.

The latest recruits at the Home of the Society for the Prevention of Crucky to Children, on Brighton Heights, Staten Island, are little Martin and Annie Lynch, whose mother, it will be remembered was To prepare the fruit for jelly, pick the grapes murdered the other day by a drunken husband, and from the stems, put them in a stone pot, but do Helghis, Statem Island, are little Martin and Annie Lynch, whose mother, it will be remembered, was murdered the other day by a drunken husband, and who was buried yesterday. The father is confined within sight of the Home, and from his cell cans the little ones playing, though, happily, they are forever out of his reach.

All the children brought to this Home have sad histories, many of them more heartrending even than that of little Annie and Martin. Last week the society's agent. James Allen, found a terrible case at Clifton. A little girl of twelve was clifton. The home and then to Smith's Infirmary, across the street, where she is now slowly recovering.

Children, fortunately, will forget, and after a few days at the Home, under the care of the motherly matron, Mrs. F. A. Adams, they lose their cowed and frightened look, but any attempt to remove them raises their fears, and much coaxing and strategy are necessary to induce them to go peace. 1809. One of the present immare, little Jegus and strategy are necessary to induce them to go peace. 1809. One of the present immare, little Jegus and strategy are necessary to induce them to go peace. 1809. One of the present immare, little Jegus and strategy are necessary to induce them to go peace. 1809. One of the present immare, little Jegus and the least peace and the strain of the second little girls of the second a porcelain-lined kettle to boll with any juice that has run from them. Let them cook fifteen or twenty minutes, stirring them often. Strain the seeds out of the pulp with a purée sleve. Add the skins to the strained pulp. To make jam measure the skins and pulp, and to every pint odd a pound of sugar. Cook until it is quite thick. It will take as much as an hour; stir it often.

To spice grapes, measure the skins and pulp as hefore. To seven pints of skins and pulp allow three and a half pounds of sugar, half a pint of grapes obtained as the juice was for jelly, and half a pint of strong cider vineger. Boil these ingredients together for about half an hour, and then add one large tablespoonful of ground cloves and two of ground cinnamon. Let the spiced grapes cook down for some time longer, or until they can be moulded. Fut spiced grapes in marmalade jars and seal them up like jelly; serve them with roust mutton or any rich roast game.

WOMAN'S PAGE APPRECIATED.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: It always gives me great pleasure to peruse the woman's column of "Sunshine." Truly yours, Brooklyn, N. Y.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Bir: I have all my life been a reader of The Though, and I consider the Woman's Page a great addition to the best newspaper.

Wer Warren, Mass. EMMA A. JOYNER.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: I must tell you again how much I enjoy the Woman's Page. It is instructive, therefore educational. Sincerely yours. Mrs. H. H. WIBERT.

No. C Early-st., Morristown, N. J., Oct. 6, 1897.

TABLET IN HONOR OF MRS. (CALES.)

TABLET IN HONOR OF MRS. COLES. The first of the regular monthly meetings of the ow-York Genealogical and Biographical Society for the season was held at the home of the so-ciety. No. 25 West Fifty-eighth-at, last night. General J. G. Wilson, president of the socioty. dad. About seventy-five members were presdata was unveiled in honor of the Mrs Elizabeth Underhill Coles, who besthed so, by to the society, with which the buildhow coupled by it was purchased. General best it vise made a speech at the unveiling, cast woods the American Navy.

BROOKLYN'S W. H. P. A.

METHODS AND MANAGEMENT OF "CITY HOUSECLEANING" DISCUSSED.

PRAISE FOR THE MAYOR WHO APPOINTED A WOMAN STREET-CLEANER-STREET

BANDS OBJECTED TO. The Women's Health Protective Association of Brooklyn held its first fall meeting yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock, at No. 204 Livingston-st., Brooklyn. Mrs. Scrimgeour, the president, was in the chair, and between twenty and thirty men were present. Mrs. Scrimgeour said she had been three times, in company with Mrs. Cornella Johnson, to interview the proper city officials in regard enforcing the ordinance about having the ash and garbage barrels placed inside the area railings instead of on the sidewalk. She was much sur-prised to learn on her last visit that the law had not even been passed, and one of the Aldermen told her, in addition, that he for one would never vote to have the law made. Naturally, she asked him why, and he told her he never expected to vote for any measure that was against his personal interests. There were several comments.

Mrs. A. J. Perry said she had been to see the city officials in regard to the lower part of Fulton-st., which was pronounced a disgrace to Brooklyn. She which was pronounced a disgrace to Brooklyn. She had also seen the street railway officers about having the rear floor of the streetcars kept clean, and was glad to say that she had noticed some improvement in the condition of the cars, though they were ment in the condition of the cars, though they were the form the matter of keeping the streets free from papers was generally discussed.

Mrs. Scrimgeour paid a compilment to New-York for the admirable way in which its streets nue kept, and said Brooklyn would have to improve vastly in this respect in order to compare with her state city. Mrs. Scrimgeour had inquired and found that people in New-York were promibled from throwing papers in the streets. This led to a talk about the distribution of pamphiets, circulars and advertising bills to people passing in the streets, and letters were read from the Corporation Counsels of Boston, Chicago and Buffalo, to all of which cities the Health Protective Association had written for information on the subject. In Boston no papers are allowed to be distributed on the streets except newspapers. Chicago also has a law prohibiting it, and Buffalo does not allow it except by special license granted for one year by the city authorities.

PRAISE FOR DENVER.

PRAISE FOR DENVER

Mrs. McFarland, who spent three months in Denver this summer, says it is the cleanest city she Garbage is removed at night, and she saw no ash-barrels nor garbage-cans disfiguring the The flushing of the streets and sewers is streets. The flushing of the streets and sewers is also done at night, and so is the sweeping, and as a result when morning comes the city is as clean and sweet as possible.

Letters were read from the Fortnightly Club, of Summit, N. J., and from the little town of Ridge-wood, N. J., inviting Mrs. Scrimgeour to visit those places the latter part of October for the purpose of giving talks to the women on questions pertaining to the health and cleanliness of cities, and how heat to promote these important matters. A report was read of a visit to the George Junior Republic in June. The Women's Health Protective Association has had eleven boys there during the summer, and believes the methods and management of the republic are most excellent for the training and development of the future citizens of the country.

A WOMAN STREET-CLEANER.

A WOMAN STREET-CLEANER.

take charge of the street-cleaning of a certain portion of that city. The appointee has selected fifteen women assistants, and was doing her work in unnecessary noises that are heard in Brooklyn streets the whistle of the machine of the peanut vender, the cries of the old-clothes men, of the sell-ers of various wares, and strolling bands being ently, can turn the edge edge.

These alumnse teas are given on the second Friday afternoon of each month throughout the winter, from 2 until 5 o'clock. Tea and conversation are generally the only entertainment provided, but sometimes there are flower shows, or exhibitions of thinss useful in school work.

The alumnae will hold their annual reunion on October 16 at the college, and expect to be addressed by Chancellor MacCracken. Miss Mary R. Davis is chairman of the Committee on Arrangements.

BUSINESS REVERSES CAUSE A SUICIDE

Some fruits seem to have a certain use. Having all their qualities so clearly adapted to this purpose, it is often something of a disappointment when they are employed in any other way. The grape has long been used for fermented and unspectable of the something of the control of the purpose in the interior of Africa as it is possible for women to go with safety. Having accomplished this, these untiring tour-ists plan to visit Greece and Turkey, remaining at No. 347 West Fifty-ninth-st, with only his wife to help him. Charles Ward ended his life shortly to help him. Charles Ward ended his life shortly after noon yesterday by shooting himself in the after noon yesterday by shooting himself in the one of the land-mostly made on foot.

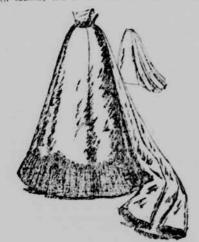

fore him.

After a while he walked into another room. Immediately there was the crash of a revolver, and Mrs. Ward found her bushand lying on the floor, the blood oozing from his mouth. He must have held the revolver between his teeth, for two of them were violently torn out.

THE TRIBUNE PATTERN.

A TISSUE-PAPER PATTERN OF A WOMAN'S TRAINED SKIRT, NO. 7,874, FOR COUPON AND TEN CENTS

are once more coming into vogue for all Trains are once more coming into vogue for all formal occasions, and are no longer confined to brides and weddings, as has been the case for some time past. The skirt shown in the illustration measures seventy inches from the waisiband to the end of the train, but shows perforations for less length, so that it is adapted to house gowns of simple make as well as to subject to bouse gowns. of simple make as well as to elaborate costumes. The front and sides fit smoothly and simply after the latest mode. The material chosen for the model is corn-colored poplinette; the trimmings, a flounce of tich lace caught here and there with pale yellow flowers. The skirt is lined throughout to a depth of eight inches, while the train has to a depth of eight inches, while the train has a complete interlining. A balayense of lace extends round the inner edge and falls slightly below the silk of the train. Silks, velvets, motres and grenadines over silk are well suited to the gowns designed for receptions and the like cashmeres, challies and light-weight woollens are delightful for those intended for house wear.

NO. 7,074-A TRAINED SKIRT.

To make this skirt for a woman of medium size will require fourteen yards of iwenty-two-inch material. The skirt pattern, No. 7,074, is cut in sizes for a 22, 25 and 30 inch whist measure.

COUPON ENTITLING TO ONE PATTERN Cut this out, fill in your name and address, and mail II to THE PATTERN DEPARTMENT OF THE TRIBUNE.

GOOD CHEER. Have you had a kindness shown?

Pass it on.

Twas not given for thee alone—
Pass it on.

Let it travel down the years.

Let it wipe another's tears.

Till in heaven the deed appears—
Pass it on!

Communications have been received from Henry M. Powell, Miss Anna St. John, Eleanor Brodie Chester, W. W. Wilcox, Mrs. G. W. Rarrick, Ellen M. Kimball, A. E. Doty, "Constant Reader," M. E. S. Miss Hamilton, Susis E. Hill, M. L. Jacobs, T. G. E., A. G. Kraetzer, Miss Helen Brown, Dorothy G. Halsey, Mrs. G. F. Smith, Clara A. Anthony, Francis Winship, Miss J. L., Master Theodore Wilson Parmley, "A Sunshine Lover," Edith M. Pollard, Mrs. H. H. Wibert, Gwendolyn Hartwell, E. E. Burke, Mrs. R. D. Baldwin, Emma K. Brown, Emma A. Joyner and I. B. E.

tributions filed or "passed on."

Two exceedingly artistic scrapbooks were received from A. E. Johnson, of Newton, Sussex County, N. J. Two teachers' editions of "The Com-prehensive Quarterly" and some back numbers of tion by A. E. H. Mrs. H. H. W. sent two num-bers of "The Ladies' World" and a copy of "Har-lem Life" to the society. Some scrap pictures were received from Mrs. S. Bernstein, A bundle (without a name attached) containing numbers of "China's Millions," "Regions Beyond," some small religious pamphlets and two beautiful cards were sent to the society by express yesterday. Doll patterns and material for dolls came from Mrs. Burdge.

wishes to acknowledge the papers, letters and packages sent her. Those to "Piano" have all reached her safely. One package of silk pieces contained a note and some stamps, but as no address was a note and some stamps, but as no address was given she could not reply, although she invariably does so as soon as possible when addresses are given. She wishes to again express through the Sunshine column her appreciation of the kind attentions which members of the society have shown her. To R. C. and McC., who sent her stamps, she is most grateful, and would have written had any address been given.

Miss Ellen M. Kimball, East Hebron, N. H., is the member who lives with her aged mother, both of them invalids, a mile from the village. Her letter was published a few days ago without name and address, which were unknown. She will be glad to receive The Tribune occasionally.

Can any one give the little poem, "What Is In Thine Hand?" that it may be printed in the Sun-shine Column?

President-General of the T. S. S.-I wish to acknowledge the receipt of the following package: "The Sunday-school Times," by Emma Cragan, "Christian Alliance," by Miss Pearl; "Parish Vis-"Christian Alliance," by Miss Pearl; "Parish Visiter and Outlook," "Cosmopolitan" and "Literary Budget." "The New-York Weekly Witness" was sent by Dan Hogan; "Chatterbox," by Miss Mundorf, and "American History Stories" were sent to Johnny Ecef by S. S. Hoe, Cranford, N. J. The T. S. S. of Evans sends many thanks to the donors. I will see that this reading matter is properly distributed. Respectfully, "UNCLE DAN," President of the T. S. S. of Evans, Col. Will some of the members please send silk pleces and odd scraps of pretty goods to "Uncle Dan". Many of the older members of the Evans branch are making crazy patchwork.

Streets—the whistle of the machine of the peanut vender, the cries of the old-clothes men, of the sellers of various wares, and strolling hands being especially mentioned by some of the members.

Mrs. Perry said that, for her part, she liked to hear the bands play, and she thought it a means of heightening and cheering the rest hours of the working classes. She also said that a city was obliged to have noises, and that if one wanted to have absolute quiet it would be necessary to move to the country. She found it far more noisy in Paris than in Brooklyn.

The unitidy and unsightly condition of the steps and corridors of the municipal buildings was talked over and condemned, and the city afficials will probably be informed before many days of the mention over and condemned, and the city afficials will probably be informed before many days of the mention over and condemned, and the city afficials will probably be informed before many days of the mention of the S. S. of Evans, Col. and odd scraps of pretty goods to "lincle Dan' Many of the older members of the Evans brane are making crazy patchwork.

President-General of the F. S. S. Having re making crazy patchwork.

President-General of the F. S. Having re ceived a number of packages of papers and magazine, also a beautiful scrapbook and two little booklets, I wish to thank you and all the members that have so kindly favored me. They are helping not passed and corridors of the municipal buildings was talked over and condemned, and the city afficials will probably be informed before many days of the steps.

The unitidy and unsightly condition of the steps and corridors of the municipal buildings was talked over and confidence quiet in would be necessary to move to the country. She found it far more polys in the total number of packages of papers and magazines, its also a beautiful scrapbook and two little booklets, I wish to thank you and all the member that have so kindly favored me. They are theighted to thave noises and that if one wanted to the cell was a sec

Mrs. Marie Alice Tyler, of New-York, and Mrs. R. H. White, of Boston, sail to-day on the steamhip Kalser Wilhelm II direct to Gibraltar, from which point they make a short journey through

Spain, Returning to Gibraliar, they will go to Naples for a few weeks, after which they will visit Alexandria, and intend to push as far into the interior of Africa as it is possible for women the interest of art allo stabilities to the tour is to be made.

The tourists are going unattended even by a maid, fully believing that American women are safe and sure to be protected in all lands. PICTURES FOR THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The Public Education Association, through its president, Mrs. Schuyler Van Rensselaer, a chairman of its Art Committee, Mrs. E. S. Mead, has arranged for an exhibition at the Keppel Gallery. No. 10 East Sixteenth-st, that will show a large collection of works of art prepared for the decoration of the public schools of the city. The work of filling the barren, ugly interiors of our schools with fine works of srt, and thus making them instructive, inspiring and refining in their influence, as well as more attractive, was begun by the Public Education Association last winter. It has already decorated a primary school in Wooster-st, and the girls' department of a grammar school at Grove and Hudson sts. The collection now to be shown temporarily in a more accessible place is destined chiefly for the boys' department of the grammar school at Chrystie and Hester sts, but jucides some pictures selected for a primary school. This collection will contain many fine plaster casts from famous works of scuipture. There will be works illustrating, for example, American history, American scenery, foreign lands, literature, Greek and Roman art or medieval and Renalssance art. Upon the interest which the public manifests in this exhibition must largely depend the continuance of the association's work in this direction, as it has no recourses except private donations.

Mr. Keppel has given his gallery without charge. ery, No. 10 East Sixteenth-st., that will show a nations.

Mr. Keppel has given his gallery without charge.

It will be open between 3 and 6 o'clock from October 18 to 27 inclusive. Admission will be free.

D. A. R. NOT GOING TO NASHVILLE. Washington, Oct. 8.-At the meeting of the Board of Managers of the National Society of the Daugh ters of the American Revolution it was decided with much regret that it would be impossible for that body to attend the Tennessee Centennial on October 19, the anniversary of Yorktown, as had been arranged.

INTERESTING PRISON EXHIBITION. The prison exhibition, which was opened on Thursday in the rooms of the Prison Association, at No. 135 East Fifteenth-st., will close to-day at 9:30 p. m. John Murray Mitchell presided yester day, and explained to those in attendance the make-up of the different articles on exhibition. There is no charge for admission to either exhibition or conferences. Tickets may be secured by personal application between 10 and 11 o'clock.

SUICIDE OF A DESERTED WIFE.

Chicago, Oct. 8.-In a clump of woods on Euclidave., between Third and Fourth sts., two boys to day found the dead body of a woman, evidently critede, lying among the weeds and tall grass Clutched in her hand was a telegram addre "Mrs. D. P. O'Connell, Manhattan Beach Hotel, Chicago," sent from a small town in Tennessee, september 25, and which read: "Will leave for Cuba to-night," and signed "Dan." Two bottles, one labelled landanum, and the other paregoric, both empty, were found in the grass beside her. Mrs. O'Connell and her husband were attendants at the bathhouse at Windsor Park during the summer. About September 15 O'Connell left the hotel and, drawing all their savings, amounting to about 380, from the bunk, disappeared. The female cashier at the bathhouse disappeared at the same time. They were next heard of in Nashville, Tenn., and from the telegram found in the dead woman's hand are now supposed to be in Cuba. Mrs. D. P. O'Connell, Manhattan Beach Hotel,

WHEELMAN KILLED BY A TEAM OF HORSES Ridgefield, Conn., Oct. 8.-George Hobby, seventeen years old, died at his home here to-day from injuries received from being run into by an un-known team as he was returning from the Danbury Fair on his bicycle last night.

OFFICERS OF THE TYPOTHETAE ELECTED. Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 8.—The United Typothetæ of America elected the following officers: President, CORNELL JUNIORS' CREW WINS.

A PRETTY RACE WITH THE SENIORS ON

CAYUGA LAKE. Ithaca, N. Y., Oct. 8.-The fall race of the Cornell class crews was held on Cayuga Lake this after-noon. About two thousand people in steamers and smaller craft watched the contest, which began at 4:50 o'clock. The sophomore, junior and senior classes each had a fast crew on the water, and en were on hand in separate boats to cheer for their favorites. As expected, the contest was between the senior and juntor crews, although the sophomores proved dangerous rivals. Victory went to the juniors in 5 minutes and 20 seconds, fairly good time, considering the brief training period. The course extended a mile along the west shore of the lake, beginning a quarter of a mile down the regular course and finishing at Treman's dock.

The crews came out of their boathouses at 4:15 o'clock, the sophomores lying nearest the shore, the juniors in the middle and the seniors on the outside. At the report of the pistol the juniors shot ahead for helf a length's lead, at a stroke of thirty-two to the minute, immediately followed by the seniors, with the sophomores in the rear, and this proved to be the order throughout the race. The juniors gradually increased their advantage, until at the end of the first half-mile they were two lengths in advance, having dropped their stroke to thirty-one. The seniors were splashing hard at this point, but Briggs, the plucky stroke of last this point, but Briggs, the plucky stroke of last summer's University crew, was pulling a magnificent oar for them. His crew, however, lacked body swing and did not pull well together. The juniors were manifesting the best form and were pulling well between strokes. The sophomores were rowing together, but were weak in body swing. Tae sentors made a plucky spurt on approaching the finish, but the juniors increased their stroke to thirty-three and crossed the line a full length and a half ahead, with the sophomores two lengths behind the sentors. The make up of the crews follows:
sentors—Bow, Luddiam, No. 2. Bentley, No. 3, Moore.

seniors. The make up of the crews follows:
Seniors—Bow, Ladiam: No. 2, Bentley; No. 3, Moore.
No. 4, Jeffers; No. 5, Johnston, No. 6, Fulier, No. 7, Savage; stroke, Briggs; covawain, Psie.
Juniors—Bow, Raymond: No. 2, Wagner; No. 3, Stamford; No. 4, King; No. 5, Wakeman; No. 6, Oddie; No. 7, Daizeli; stroke, Carrer; covawain, Fisher;
Sophomores—Bow, Will; No. 2, Beardsley; No. 3, Shire;
No. 4, Gamwell; No. 5, Hahmer; No. 6, Colt; No. 7, Ayers; stroke, Ihider; covawain, Magodin,
The junior crew is identical with last spring's Annapolis crew, except that Balley rowed No. 2 in the Annapolis boat and Odell rowed No. 5. The senior crew was made up of four of last year's "Snortcake" eight, and Briggs, Bentley, Moore and Savage, of last year's University crew.
The single-sculi race for the Francis medal will be held some time next week.

THE DAY'S GOSSIP.

Miss M. E. Ford will give another of her inter-Rhode Island-ave., Newport, this afternoon. The subject will be "The Human Comedy." Miss Forl is soon to return to New-York, where her lectures are eagerly expected. esting talks at the home of the Misses Mason,

The cooking class for Saturdays given by the Household Economic Association will be for young girls who have a liking for culinary pursuits. Those who wish can attend demonstration lectures.

The free prison exhibition closes to-day. The attendance has been good. Dr. Austin Flint will preside to-day at the afternoon conference, the subject at which will be "Criminal Types—Disease and Crime."

Dr. Katherine G. Townsend, vice-president of the Quid Nunc Club, has been asked to reread at the first meeting the paper she recently gave at Sorpsis on "Tenement Work." At the same meeting Professor Kemp, of Columbia College, will specif on "Evidences of Prehistoric Man in North Amer-ica." Mrs. Rachel McCluley, of the Professional Wom an's League, says: "The women who preceded us and made club life possible for us are entitled to our deepest gratitude. In this club women stand shoulder to shoulder, the rich and the poor alike, for we learn here that wordly success does not always represent merit, or failure the lack of it." Mr. and Mrs. William Allen gave a harvest home whist party and supper at their home, in East Chester, adjoining Mount Vernon, on Monday ing. Among those present were Colonel and Mrs Henry Henneberger, who have recently returned from Europe: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Lane, Colonel and Mrs. Henry Huss, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pennoyar, Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Faulhaber, Mr. and Mrs. Dane Russell and Mr. and Mrs. Rockingham.

Club was held on Wednesday afternoon in Willard Hall, Mount Vernon. In two weeks the retiring officers are to give a reception to the new officers and club members. The new officers are as fol-lows: President, Mrs. Cornelius McLean; first vicepresident, Mrs. Samuel D. Patterson; second vicepresident, Miss Letla H. Lockwood; recording secretary, Mrs. Charles H. Stecker; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. Y. Lane; treasurer, Miss Carrie Howe.

gress, now in session at the Food and Health Exposition, in Chicago, in the various departments of which space will be allotted them free of all charge to show, describe or sell for their personal benefit any object of which they are the producers or any object of which they are the producers of agents. Exhibits should arrive not later than Octo-ber 12, and they should be personally addressed to Chairman of Housewifery Congress, Battery D. Michigan-ave. Chicago.

her slow convalescence, it is feared that she may not be able to attend the approaching Congress of the State Federation of Woman's Clubs in Syracuse.

secured some California estriches and says he be-lieves they will flourish on the scrub pine of New-Jersey. He proposes to give careful attention to the birds, with a view of shipping large quantities of feathers.

The reopening of the Sunday Bible class of the Young Women's Christian Association, No. 7 East Fifteenth-st., will be held to-morrow afternoon at 3 Fifteenth-st., will be held to morrow will conduct the o'clock. Miss Doheny, the chaplain, will conduct the o'clock. Miss Doheny the chaplain, will conduct the o'clock. Miss J. H. Wessage." All service. The lesson will be taught by Mrs. Knowles. Subject, "A Voice and Its Message women are cordially invited.

The Board of Trustees of the New-York Medical College and Hospital for Women met last night to make plans for the new building and to elect offi-

The Corporation Counsel and school officials will meet to-morrow to discuss the regulation concerning school supplies at the prisons.

The School of Pedagogy will be presented this afternoon with a lifesize portrait of Dr. Jerome Allen. The University Building, at Washington Square, is the headquarters of the school, and there the presentation ceremony will take place.

The members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the for their fair, which will take place early in De-Lenox Avenue Unitarian Church are busy preparing

The arrival in New-York of Mrs. Mary Ellen Lease to enter upon work in connection with the campaign for Henry George has been instrumental in bringing Mrs. J. Ellen Foster from Washington to assist in the campaign for General Tracy.

Mrs. A. Emogen Paul, who has been placed at the head of the Street Cleaning Department of Chicago, is a native of New-York State. The site for the Baron Hirsch School, which the Baroness has endowed in memory of her husband, has been chosen in Sixty-fourth-st., near Third-ave. Plans for the building have been completed.

When the United States and Great Britain adopt the metric system it will be in general use among advanced people. England is agitating the question in a serious way, and has even passed an act that legalizes the use of that system. KEPT ALIVE BY ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. & Sustaining life for five days by means of artificial respiration with a prospect of ultimately saving the life of the patient, is what has been done in the city hospital. Last is what has been done in the city hospital. Last week a domestic named Anderson was brought to the city hospital in a serious condition, and on Saturday night City Physician Ancker was called when she appeared to be dying. Assisted by an attendant, he produced artificial respiration by working the arms, and this has been kept up steadily since, as it had the effect of keeping the girl alive. To-day Dr. Ancker said that there seemed to be a chance for her recovery. The disease is said to be laudrys-paralysis, a rare disease, due to poison generated in the blood.

DATES FOR FOOTBALL GAMES.

The football management of the New-Jersey Athletic Club has arranged the following schedule of games for the season: October 9, Union College, at Albany; October 16, open; October 23, Montelair Athlette Club; October 30, University of New-York, seph Elchbaum, of Pittsburg; Frank Hudson, of Kansas City, Mo.; E. W. Foster, of Nashville; Fredereik Spencer, of Cincinnatti, Joseph Rogers, of New-York; A. Q. Rutter, of Toronto; recretary, J. S. Cushing, of Boston; treasurer, R. R. Donnell, of Chicago, Milwaukee was selected as the next place of meeting.

FINLAY S. DOUGLAS VICTOR.

HE WINS THE ST. ANDREWS CHAM-

PIONSHIP IN THE GOLF CONTEST. Another day of golfing on the heights about Mount Hope yesterday settled the possession of the St. Andrews championship. In a way, too, it decided a much more important issue, for with the St. Andrews club standing as a representative of the royal and ancient game in the East, the one to whom its honors fell may well be regarded as the strongest and best of Eastern experts.

Finlay S. Douglas, the young Fairfield Club ama-teur, was the one who proved his claim to that title, though not before a struggle that required every quality of skill and form of which he is master. It was a day of unusually close, exciting and energetic play. The four men who survived the merit, each on edge to establish a claim for the costly St. Andrews Cup. There was Bowers, broad-shouldered, deep-chested and athletic, with his record of Fenn's defeat on the previous day to spur him to further effort. Then, too, the English player, Stewart, had taken a place among the fortunate four. Menzies, the hope of the St. Andrews contingent, was another to claim recognition in the contest, and, last of all. Douglas, with his boyhood experience on the links of "Old Sco tia," was there to maintain the credit of his Old World tutors.

The struggle of these four giants was well worth going miles to see. The semi-finals, which were to drop two from the issue, were played in the mornagainst Douglas. Bowers furnished an illustration of the uncertainty of golfing form, for, in spite of his brilliant victory over Fenn, which, if not record-breaking, was at least the envy of his fellow golfers, he was beaten by Menzies by 3 up and I to play. Stewart and Douglas played with all the accuracy and skill they could master, and the result was a contest which for brilliancy and excitement outrivalled any of the day. The two came home with even scores, and an additional hole was played to decide the winner. It was here that the most spectacular feature occurred. Stew art reached the green and played the ball to the very lip of the hole, laying Douglas an ugly-looking stymic. But, nothing daunted, the Fairfield player drew out his lofter and raised the ball, clearing Stewart's and swinging it into the receptacle. This gave him the hole and the match by 1 up. The cards tell their own story:

*Approximated. With Stewart and Bowers out, the two remaining players. Douglas and Menzies, met for the finals. The crowd, which had been gathering throughout the forenoon, had by this time swelled to generous proportions. It trailed in the wake of the contestants with an enthusiasm that had not been manifested on any previous day of the week Menzies was a strong favorite. Indeed, the crowd applauded almost too generously when he was ahead, while it treated his opponent to scant encouragement. On the opening hole Douglas made the poorest drive of the match. He topped it badly, the ball landing in an apple orchard to the left of the course, where it was practically unplayable. Douglas picked the ball up and gave Menzies the hole. After that, however, he was invincible. Men-zies, while never more skilful, could do nothing but hang at his heels. The end of the first nine holes found Douglas in the lead by two up, and, though the tenth was halved in four, the Fairfield player won the eleventh and stood three up, an advantage which he did not succeed in increasing in the rest of the contest. The twelfth and thirteenth holes were won by Menzies, the fourteenth went to Dougas, and the fifteenth was again balved, leaving Douglas still two up.

A lucky drive by Menzies gave the latter the six teenth, the ball striking the side of the hill and rolling down onto the green. At this point the excitement ran high, for Douglas was now only one citement ran high, for Douglas was now only one ahead, and only two holes remained to be played. The seventeenth was halved, and Douglass was dormle one. The final hole was played amid breathless interest. Menzies had a chance to win, but missed a long put, and the hole was finally halved in four. This gave Douglas the match.

The cards showed the following figures:

The Consolation Cup was won by W. T. Gray, of St. Andrews, who dereated C. L. Tappin, of Westbrook, in the final round by 5 up and 3 to play. To-day the tournament is to end with an eignteen-hole medal-play handicap, for which 18 entries have been received.

The summary of yesterday's matches follows:

president, Mrs. Samuel D. Patterson; second vice-president, Miss Letla H. Lockwood; recording secterary, Mrs. Charles H. Stocker; corresponding sectetary, Mrs. Charles H. Stocker; corresponding sectetary, Mrs. J. Y. Lane; treasurer, Miss Carrie Howe.

The members of the Ladies' International Association are invited to exhibit at the Housewifery Considered Mrs. Samuel D. Patternational Association are invited to exhibit at the Housewifery Considered Mrs. Samuel D. Patternational Association Cup (semi-inal round)—W. T. Gray, St. Addrews, beat J. M. Knapp. Westbrook, 6 up and 4 to play.

Laternational Cup (semi-final round)—J. S. Douglas, Fair-field, beat W. G. Stewart, Seabright, I up (10 holies); F. W. Mennies, St. Andrews, beat F. W. Mennies, St. Andrews, Deat F. W. Mennies, St. Andrews, Lockwood; T. Gray, Andrews, Capture Cup and I beat W. G. Stewart, Seabright, I up (10 holies); F. W. Mennies, St. Andrews, Deat F. W. Mennies, F. W. Mennies, St. Andrews, Deat F. W. Mennies, F. W. Mennies, St. Andrews, Deat F. W. Mennies, F. W. Mennies, St. Andrews, Deat F. W. Mennies, F. W. Mennies, F. W. Mennies, St. Andrews, Deat F. W. Mennies, F. W. en Island C. C., 5 up and 4 to play. inal round-W. T. Gray beat C. L. Tappin, 5 up and GAMES ARRANGED FOR TO-DAY.

The players who are to represent the Nutley Golf Club to-day in its team match against the Montclair Golf Club at the links of the latter are Alpheus Geer, T. W. Satterthwaite, A. Ohrtmann, Maro Michael, S. H. Dorr, E. Morgan, jr., S. Delafield, W. Gladwin, A. H. Larkin and C. J. Clark. At the Ardsley links the usual programme is to be varied by a mixed foursome tournament for a cup presented by A. L. Barber.

W. W. Lowrey has presented a silver cup to the Richmond County Country Club, the first contest for which is to take place this afternoon. The con-for which is to take place this afternoon. The conditions under which the cup is offered call for a series of eighteen-hole medal play tournaments to be played on October 9, 18, 22 and 39, the contestant turning in the lowest two net scores in the mouth to be declared the winner.

Some of the other leading matches arranged for the day include a team match between the Hillside Golf Club and the Elizabeth Town and Country Club, at the links of the latter; a match between the Marine and Field Club and the Oakland Golf Club, at Bay Side, Long Island, and the sixth of the monthly handleaps at the links of the Staten Island Cricket Club.

The women's putting match at the Country Club of Westchester, for the cup presented by Mrs. W. H. Sands, has been won by Mrs. W. R. Duneau, whose score was $2. Mrs. Ellis was second at $6, 22.

THOMSON THE COLLEGE CHAMPION.

PRINCETON'S MAN OVERCOMES FORBES IN THE SINGLES. New-Haven, Conn., Oct. 8.-The finals in the intercollegiate tennis tournament were played on the New-Haven Lawn Tennis Club's grounds this morninc. and were won by S. G. Thomson, of Princeton, inc. and were won by S. G. Thomson, of Princeton, inc. and the best play of the tournament occurred. A five-set match was necessary to decide the championship, always best play to be a proper two controls of the property though Thomson had the match within one or two points nearly a dozen times. Forbes was not in his usual physical form, but Thomson played cau-tiously, and should have won three straight sets. The first and fourth sets were stubbornly con-tested, while the second and third were easy for the Princeton man. Thomson finally won, 6-8, 6-1, 6-3, 5-7, 7-5.

FIFTH-AVE. AND LENOX TENNIS TOURNEY. Another day's play in the inter-club tournament of the Lenox and Fifth-ave tennis clubs, at the former's grounds vesterday, has narrowed down the events considerably. Heywood, of the Lenox the events considerably. Heywood, of the Lenox club, the favorite for first place in the men's singles, has reached the finals, and will meet either Kearney or Rice in the finals, with the chances in favor of the former. Miss Stroud, of the Fifth Avenue club, has almost a walkover in her event. Should the Lenox players win the men's doubles and the Fifth Avenue representatives take the mixed doubles as expected, a fifth event for ladies doubles will probably be added, with strong chances in favor of the Fifth Avenue players. The victory will rest with the club winning the greatest number of events.

The scores follow:

Men's singles (first round)—C. P. Rice (Lenox) best A.

The scores follow:

Men's singles (first round)—C. P. Rice (Lenox) best A.

R. Bunnell (Fifth Avenue), 6-3, 6-4,
Semi-final round-Dr. H. H. Heywood (Lenox) best E.
Martin (Lenox), 6-3, 6-4, J. Kasrney (Fifth Avenue)
absinct C. P. Rice (Lenox), 6-4 (unfaithed),
Women's singles (semi-final round)—Miss F. L. Stroud
Women's singles (semi-final round)—Miss F. L. Stroud
CFifth Avenue) best Miss Bunnell (Fifth Avenue), 6-2, 6-2. 6-2. Mixed doubles (preliminary round)-J. Kearney and Mixes Stroud (Fifth Avenue) beat Dr. H. H. Heywood and Miss Remer (Lenox), 6-1, 6-3.

FISCHER AND BOSTWICK CHAMPIONS.

Fischer and Bosiwick captured the double cham-pionship of the West Side Tennis Club yesterday in the easiest kind of fashion. Cragin and Cordier were completely outclassed, and could not get a set. This gives Fischer first honors in three of the four events on the programme this fall.

There are two matches yet to be finished in the handicap doubles before the tournament is ended. Bostwick and McGuire (minus 15) will meet Fennessy and Stratton (half 15), and the winners will play Cragin and Cordier (scratch) in the final round.

Scores follow: Forsich doubles Semi-final round—W. B. Cragin, Jr., and C. X. Cordier beat E. H. Pennessey and G. Stratton, 6-1, 7-5.

Final round-E. P. Fischer and O. M. Bostwick beat R. Cragin, ir., and C. X. Cordier, 6-4, 6-3, 6-1.